

Torn between two lovers

There are times when a woman has to say what's on her mind Even though she knows how much it's gonna hurt Before I say another word, let me tell you "I love you"
Let me hold you close,
and say these words as gently as I can

"There's been another man that I've needed, and I've loved
But that doesn't mean
I love you less
And he knows he can't possess me, and he knows he never will There's just this empty place inside of me that only he can fill"

Torn between two lovers,
feeling like a fool
Loving both of you
is breaking all the rules
Torn between two lovers,
feeling like a fool
Loving you both
is breaking all the rules

You mustn't think you failed me just because there's someone else
You were the first real love
I ever had
And all the things I ever said,
I swear they still are true
For no one else can have the part of me I gave to you

Torn between two lovers,
feeling like a fool
Loving both of you
Torn between two lovers,
feeling like a fool
Loving you both
is breaking all the rules

One whole generation (Babylonian Talmud)

When the Jews had witnessed Jesus and He was gone again,
the whole temple service
took another turn.
They drew the lot for the goat
to be sacrificed for God, and every time the left hand – a bad sign – drew that lot.

The purple-colored belt
they kept to see the sign, it didn't turn white as it used to shine.
The flame of the Menorah
which used to burn all time, went out as all the others did:
another evil sign!

One whole generation
God gave warning signs
but they wouldn't turn
to be with Him again.
One whole generation
seeing but being blind,
then came the time
when they lost their land.

The heavy gates swung open,
so the foes could enter in.
A cow brought to the temple gave birth to a lamb!
And there it was, the final sign:
by night they had to hear an army leave the temple saying:
„Let Us depart from here!“

Babylonian Talmud
tells it loud and clear:
The sages knew
that calamity was near.
They wrote down what happened
but they didn't warn,
they wouldn't turn,
so God's wrath did come.

I couldn't really blame you if you turned and walked away
But with everything I feel inside, I'm asking you to stay

Torn between two lovers,
feeling like a fool
Loving both of you
Torn between two lovers,
feeling like a fool
Loving you both

Torn between two lovers,
feeling like a fool
Loving both of you
Torn between two lovers,
feeling like a fool... (ausblenden)

Dear Jews of our era,
do look it up yourselves:
It is written in your ancient books but nobody would tell!

Babylonian Talmud
tells it loud and clear:
The sages knew
that calamity was near.
They wrote down what happened
but they didn't warn,
they wouldn't turn,
so God's wrath did come.

One whole generation
God gave warning signs
to be with Him again.
One whole generation
seeing but being blind...
